PARADE AND BANQUET FOR DRAFTED MEN IN DONORA

Thursday Evening is Date Set for Demonstration in Honor of Men

DONORA ELKS IN CHARGE

The men summoned from the Fifth District of Washington, who are to leave for Camp Sherman on Friday noon next, will be the guests of Donora on Thursday evening, at which time it is proposed to have a public demonstration and banquet.

The drafters will in a sense be the guests of the Donora Lodge of Elks. The club rooms of that organization will be open to the men summoned and to the members of their immediate families and relatives. At 7:30 a parade will take place, in which the Donora Elks and all other organizations of the town will take part. In addition a generous invitation has been extended to the Charleroi Lodge of Elks and all other fraternal organizations in our borough to take part in this demonstration. Any organization that can attend are requested to notify Clyde T. Lewis, who is chairman of the parade committee, and who will assign them a place in line.

After the parade the 175 men summoned, as well as all veterans of the civil war, will be entertained at a banquet to be given in the First National Bank Hall of Donora. The banquet will be served about 8:30 o'clock, or immediately after the parade is over. After the banquet it is presumed the men will be allowed to return to their various homes, if they so wish, to report the following morning to prepare for entraining for Camp Sherman. Those who wish to remain in Donora over night will be taken care of.

It is the expectation of the Donora citizens and of the Donora Elks to make this demonstration one of the greatest ever held in that borough and the co-operation of the surrounding communities is invited.

WILL HONOR MEMBERS WHO LEAVE FOR CAMP

The Russian Dramatic Association of Charleroi will hold an entertainment and farewell reception this evening in Russian Hall, in honor of three of its members who will leave on Friday for the training camp at Chillicothe, Ohio. The reception will be held from 8 to 12 o'clock, and admission to the hall is free, with everybody invited. The men who will leave on Friday are J. Yochychok, K. Doshner and John Boloschok.

CALL FOR YOUR RED CROSS MAGAZINE

A number of Red Cros magazines which the letter carriers could not deliver, owing to incomplete address, were left at the Red Cross headquarters in the office of the Charleroi Real Estate company office. Those who have not received their magazines can call on Mrs. Kirk, who will be glad to furnish any copy that is addressed to them.

WORK ON CRIB GOING NICELY

Pushing Construction to Complete it as Soon as Possible

EXTRA TIME FOR WORKMEN

The work of placing the big cribbing in the "break" at Lock No. 4 dam is progresing very favorably under the supervision of Superintendent Nutt. The workmen are putting in 10 hours each day on this important work, as it is desired to have the cribbing placed before there should be any stoppage because of high water or other unavoidable occurrences.

The work is being favored with splendid weather, while the stage of water in the pools is also suitable to a vigorous prosecution of the undertaking. The cribbing is quite extensive in character, filling up practically all of the circle in the improvised dam which was erected last March. Once this big network of timber is safely anchored on the bottom of the river, it will not take long to fill it with heavy stone, which will make the foundation for the new dam a solid structure. In order to facilitate the work some of the water has been drawn off pool No. 3, but this draining will not interfere with navigation. After the new part of the dam has been completed it will be "knit in" with the segments of the old dam on either side of the river.

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS TUESDAY EVENING

Miss Hazeldell Lambert entertained a number of friends at her home on Fallowfield avenue Tuesday evening. Music and games were the diversions of the evening. Out of town guests were from Fairmont, Belle Vernon and Monessen. Lunch was served by the hostess.

FAMINE IN FUEL FEARED ON RIVER

Notwithstanding the fact that all of the river mines along the Monongahela are taxed to capacity and shipping daily all coal mined for use in the mills and factories of Pittsburg and vicinity, coal is scarce and a fuel famine is feared. The steamers of the Vesta Coal company, an auxiliary of the Jones & Laughlin Steel company, are all going up stream with single lockings, in order to make better time and return the sooner with loaded barges. Steamboatmen as well as mine superintendents are daily making inquiries for help, but labor is hard to obtain for any of the jobs that are open.

Heavy fogs is also an element in the delay of delivering fuel, all boats being delayed from six to ten hours each day because of the impossibility of navigating when the mist is so heavy along the valley. It was reported Tuesday afternoon that the Vesta Coal company had but four loaded barges in its landings in Pittsburg, which shows that the company is using coal practically as fast as it is being mined.

The steamer Hillman is now towing for the J. & L. line in the hope of keeping the supply of coal somewhere near the normal point, or at least in sufficient quantities that none of the mills will have to close down. The steamer Aliquippa is missed in this fleet of towing steamers, but this boat will not be off the ways for some time yet, the repairs necessary to put it back in shape for commission being more extensive than at first contemplated.

The fuel shortage is not confined to the river, as local dealers are also predicting that the domestic demands are such that it is going to be somewhat difficult to supply them when cold weather arrives.

PRIMARY VOTE IS VERY LIGHT

The primary election is progressing very quietly in Charleroi, up to 1:30 this afternoon the vote being very light. While this is true, candidates as well as their friends are very active, and expect to materially increase the size of the vote by the time polls close this evening at 7 o'clock.

Up until 1:30 the vote in the varius precincts was as follows: First precinct, Republican, 115; Democrats, 18. Second precinct, Republican 59, Democrat 9. Third precinct, Republican 26, Democrat 4. Fourth precinct, Republican 89, Democrats 11, Socialists 2. Fifth precinct, Republican 27, Democrat 7. Sixth precint, Republican 27, Democrat 7. Sixth precinct, Republicans 339, Democrats 57, Socialists 2. Grand total 398.

WASHINGTON COUNTY MEN ARE ON THE WAY TO CAMP

BIG SALE OF COAL IN AMWELL TOWNSHP

J. W. Emery of Washington, has sold 324 acres of coal land in Amwell township to the Pittsburg Coal company for $330 per acre or a total of $106,920. The tract adjoins the block owned by J. M. Hillman, and also that recently purchased by the Pittsburg Coal company from I. W. Semans, of Uniontown. The Pittsburg Coal company owns in addition to this recent tract, about 6,000 acres of coal in Amwell.

FLOODS ARE MADE TO ORDER

Coal Being Sent South on Artificial "Rise" to Relieve Shortage

SCHEME VERY SUCCESSFUL

Another artificial "coal boat" stage of water was created in the Ohio river today, by means of which about one million bushels of coal will be shipped from the Kanawha river to Cincinnati and Louisville markets thereby relieving the fuel necessities [illegible] ing centers.

This artificial stage is but one of the many that has been created during the past few months, by means of which several million bushels of coal have been sent to market which otherwise would have been held in landings at point of loading until nature had provided the additional water to make the flood.

A particularly pleasing feature of these midsummer floods is the fact that they are created at a time when it is a pleasure to "steamboat," the crew not being compelled to brave the wintry winds and icy elements in order to transport the big fleets in safety to the south. It is a far cry from the old time "fifteen feet and a full moon" to these "harvest home" floods, which permit rivermen to perform their most important work in pleasant weather. Likewise the made-to-order floods keep a number of river mines in steady operation, where otherwise they might have had to close down.

Over 600 Men in This Detachment, Who Will Report at Camp Sherman

LOCAL MEN TO LEAVE FRIDAY

Washington county's contingent of about 650 men will begin entraining today for Camp Sherman at Chillicothe, Ohio. The men from District No. 1, heatquarters at Washington, will entrain this evening, to be followed on Thursday and Friday by other quotas from the different districts. At this time 40 per cent of the county's quota of 1650 have been called and they will be in camp not later than Saturday morning next. The quota of the Fifth district was originally scheduled to leave on the 19th, but the local Board had the date changed to the 21st. These men will leave Donora at 12:58 Friday to be joined in Pittsburg by contingents from other parts of western Pennsylvania, who will go by special train to the cantonment.

Most of the men from Washington county will be assigned to the Three Hundred and Thirtieth Infantry and the Three Hundred and Twenty-third Field Artillery, while some will be attached to the Second Depot Regiment in which there are already quite a number of Washington county boys.

It has been suggested that the men leaving for camp at this time should take with them two suits of heavy underwear and a pair of heavy high top shoes. It is also recommended that the drafters wear their old clothing. It is expected the uniforms will be delivered next week, but there may be a delay in this respect. In order to be prepared for eventualities the men should take clothing that can be cast aside or sold for a small sum, if they do not wish to send them back home. During the next four days it is estimated that 275,000 additional men unused to the arts of war will be assembled in the various camps, prepared to undergo the intensive training in order to become soldiers. It is expected the men will remain in camp all winter, as it will take several months to put them in shape for actual service.

STEAMER VALLEY GEM MAY GO TO THE OHIO

The passenger and freight steamer Valley Gem, which was sold by the United States Marshal at Fairmont last week, was purchased by an Evansville, Ind., firm and may be taken down the Ohio and entered in a trade. It is said the steamer Ruth, which was formerly in the short Ohio trade out of Pittsburg, may be put in the trade between Pittsburg and Fairmont.

"The Italian Battlefront"

Of all the war pictures which have been shown none can have more interest today than this, which pictures the first steps and the first decisive victory of that glorious offensive which Italy is still waging on the Eastern front. The capture of Gorizia, which is the objective point of the campaign shown in these pictures taken under the direction of the Italian government, opened the way for the present offensive aimed at Trieste. The wonderful scenes in the 10-reels of Italy's part in the world conflict are equally descriptive of the campaign whose victories are filling today's news columns.

DISTNCTLY FEMININE

The "Legion of Death" has won world-wide praise as well as fame. It has been impossible not to admire, even moss-backed conservatives wringing applause with disapproval as they read of how these brave women faced the enemy in the most fashion, each carrying a dose of poison as well as a gun in order to be able to escape after worse than death in the event of capture by the Germans. The heroism of this legion of women was the more dramatic by contrast with the frivolity and even childishness of so many of Russia's men soldiers who, literally gone mad over their country's freedom, are represented as stopping in the middle of a battle to step aside and discuss social reform.

But thoughtful observers, remembering that sex difference is more than physical have been inclined to think that the members of the "Legion" are still women in spite of their trousers, their guns and their bravery and now a not altogether unexpected element of opera bouffs in the wonderful story has been revealed. It appears that the Petrograd division of the Legion is "in revolt" because its commander, a lady with the hard name of Butchkorevo, is "too rough." She is "too rough," not because she leads her followers into the thick of the fight but because, when they displease her, she slaps their faces! - No wonder there is revolt for a brave girl-soldier must resent a slapping as scarcely less humiliating than a spanking.

Senator Hardwick wants the government to make consent of the soldiers before they are sent to any given point. Apparently he does not know that the "consent of the governed" theory applied to war has attenuated Russia's armies and placed that country in grave peril.

The raiding of one German-language newspaper in Philadelphia by the Federal authorities may at least serve as a warning to others that this war is no joke and that American "free dom" has its limits

"Sparks' memorial," so aptly expressive of Teutonic war methods in general, appears to be Hunter's modernization of the old time pirate motto, "dead men tell no tales."

Whether its foreign born queen is much real response it or not, the discovered role of secret ally of Germany has got Sweden into a pretty mess

With all the women and school children joining in, Germany's "Gott strafe Wilson" and "Gott strafe America" must be some noise.

At least a slight German accent is noticeable in practically all complaints of a lack of "free speech."

Obituaries

George F. Gehring.

George F Gehring, whose death occurred at the Monongahela Memorial hospital Tuesday at 1.15 p. m., was born in Philadelphia a little over forty years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Chris Gehring and in which city his parents still reside.

About seven years ago Mr. Gehring came to Charleroi and later secured employment with the Macbeth-Evans Glass company, with which corporation he was employed as a draftsman at the time he was overtaken by his last illness. He was a member of and active worker in Christ Lutheran church and was prominent in affairs of the congregation for the betterment of his home community. He was also a member of the Alpha Phi Beta, and belonged to a Franklin No. 292 F. & A. M.. He was married last October to Miss Ada Mitchell who with his parents, one brother Harry of North Charleroi and one sister, Mrs. Stricker of Philadelphia, survive him.

George Gehring was a young man whom it was a pleasure to know. His activities in church circles, and for the church of his faith was a criterion of his character, and for all the better things in life and in his daily associations with his fellowmen he was an inspiration and influence for good. His death is not only a loss to his wife, his parents and other members of his family, but is a distinct loss to the community. His friends he numbered by the score in Charleroi, not alone along the men with whom he worked from day to day, but with all classes in the entire community. The sincere sympathy of our citizens goes out to his bereaved ones in this hour of trial, knowing that his absence will make a void that can never be filled

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock, in Christ Lutheran church to be conducted by Rev. C. P. Bastian, the pastor. Interment will take place in the cemetery at Uniontown. His remains will be accompanied by brother Masons from Charleroi Lodge, No 615 who will hold Masonic services at the grave.

In Hot Weather British Gunners on Western Front Strip to the Waist

Through the long hot days of summer the allies have been pounding away at the Hun lines, each furious attack driving them further back. The sensational attacks have been made by the men with the bayonets and hand grenades, but the gunners who have manned the great howitzers behind the lines have not faltered in their duty. Here they are—a group of Australians—feeding ammunition to one of the greatest field pieces on the British side of the Western front. The men are working stripped to the waist during the depressing weather. The photograph was taken by the official photographer of the British.

REV. WHIPKEY TO LEAVE CHARLEROI

Rev. A. J. Whipkey, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has announced his intention of resigning his charge in Charleroi, to take up work in another part of the country. Rev. Whipkey has informed the Elders of the church of his intentions, and on Sunday next he expects to make public announcement of the fact. Two weeks later a congregational meeting will be held at which time the members of the church will vote on the question of dissolving the pastoral relations, when the matter will go to Presbytery for final action. If all matters can be satisfactorily arranged Mr. Whipkey expects to sever his connection with the church not later than the latter part of October. What his future movements are not absolutely determined, he is considering an offer which came to him unsolicited from New York state, and which he may accept. Rev. Whipkey has been pastor of the First Presbyterian church for almost three years, beginning his duties in Charleroi in February, 1915 Mrs. Whipkey is now absent from Charleroi, being engaged in Chautauqua work in New York state, in which line of activity she is making quite a success

WILL COLLECT COST OF KEEPING INSANE

The board of poor directors of Washington county has started, through its counsel, Harry A. Jones, a systematic investigation for the purpose of collecting the cost of maintenance of the indigent and insane now supported at the expense of the county in state institutions and at the county home, from the estate of such unfortunates, if any, or from such of the near relatives as are by law made liable for their support. It has been discovered that some of the insane sent from this county to state institutions and there kept for years at the joint expense of the state and the county are possessed of estates in their own right. One such inmate was found who had been in a state insane hospital for [illegible] years at the expense of Washington county, having an estate of over $6,000, which payment, was of course compelled. An inmate of the county home was found to have a trust fund of $400, in the hands of her collateral relatives and this fund was promptly commandered and applied to her maintenance. An act passed by the legislature in 1836 authorizes the directors of the poor to take possession of all real estate or personal property belonging to one who is a public charge and to appropriate the same to their maintenance and support.

STREET CAR SERVICE PEEVES DONORA CITIZENS

Donora citizens are somewhat "peeved" over their street car accommodations, particularly at night, when the last car out from the city dumps passengers for Donora at Black Diamond who have to walk the balance of the way home. Such an occurrence happened a short time ago, when a number of Donora citizens on their way home from the city on Saturday night, failed to find a car waiting for them at one o'clock Sunday morning, when they arrived at the transfer point. As no car was available a telephone message to Donora brought a large lumber truck which transported a number of the belated travelers, who were particularly emphatic in expressing their opinion of the street car company and its management At a meeting of the Donora borough council held a few days later, the matter was presented to the councilmen, who authorized the borough clerk to write the Pittsburg Railways company management, with a view of having more certain connections made at Black Diamond, particularly after the last car arrived at midnight.

KEYSTONE DIVISION IS ALMOST FILLED

The Pennsylvania Division, otherwise the Twenty-eight of the new United States Army on Sunday last lacked only 433 men of being at full strength. This number of recruits will be furnished within a short time when the Division will be at war strength. The men are more proficient than ever, and with the intensive training they are now undergoing the Division will be in the pink of condition before the beginning of the new year.

Notice

To the People of Charleroi:

I would like to make a statement as to my qualifications as a chiropractor, also to briefly outline the phenomenal growth of chiropractic. When I say that I am a chiropractor, some people look at me as though I was some new sort of a germ. Some will exclaim, "O yes, a Shiropractic, you rub a person and fix up sore feet don't you" I explain that I do nothing of the sort. You might hear some remark, "Oh he's one of them quacks, they go to school for 6 weeks and then try to humbug the people." or, "O, I thought a Chiropractor was some sort of a religious fanatic." It's embarrassing to say the least.

I am a graduate of the Palmer School of Chiropractic of Davenport, Iowa. Having taken the three years scientific course, spending 2083 hours in actual class attendance.

This is the largest college of its kind in the world, having 650 students in daily attendance and a free clinic of over 1200 patients daily

HISTORICAL

The first adjustment was given in 1895 by Dr D. D. Palmer, then a magnetic healer Harvey Lillard, who had been deaf for years, came to take the Doctor's treatment. He stated that while in a cramped stooped position he heard something pop in his neck and that his deafness dated from that time Dr. Palmer by good fortune, noticed a bump on his neck and reasoned that if there was no bump when the hearing was good and the production of the bump caused deafness, why wouldn't the reduction of the bump restore hearing. In three days time, the bump was reduced to the extent that Harvey could hear as well as he ever could. The question arose, if a bump in the neck caused deafness, why wouldn't other bumps in other parts of the spine produce other diseases.

Phenomenal Growth

Today there are approximately 7,000 practitioners in the U. S. alone, while 500,000 persons daily take adjustments.

This phenomenal growth can be explained by the health results obtained, as 95 per cent of all cases get entirely well through chiropractic adjustments. Science has proven that 95 per cent of [illegible] cases can be traced to the spine.

If you are in poor health, don't let prejudice and ignorance stand in your way. Come in and learn what chiropractic can do for you. Its a pleasure to tell you about chiropractic.

Children of Wealthy in Newport Fete To Raise Funds For Destitute Abroad

Children of the wealthy have contributed large sums to funds established in America to aid the destitute in the ravaged countries of Europe. Not the least spectacular benefit entertainment was that held last week at Newport at the summer residence of Ogden Mills, Jr. These two lads, representing the Army and Navy, respectively, were participants in the function. They are Marcus Winthrop Sands at the left, and McClure Howland at the right, both [illegible] New Yorkers who are summering at the society resc

POWER OF THE MAYOR IS CIRCUMSCRIBED

The Mayor of Monongahela is circumscribed in his power to commit prisoners according to a decision handed down last week by Judge McIvaine in the Washington county court. It was in the case of the commonwealth against John Ferlina and the rule was made absolute and the information quashed. Ferlina was arrested and taken before W. J. Blythe, acting mayor of Monongahela on a charge of surety of the peace brought by Angelina Mastrianna, who alleged that the defendants on August 23 1917 threatened to burn her house. The defendant claimed that for the purposes of the argument that the threats if any threats were made, were made at Donora and not at Monongahela. It was further claimed that what the defendant did was not in violation of any ordinance of Monongahela which facts were alleged to have been established at the hearing. The defendant was held for court by the acting mayor.

The question for decision in this case was whether or not the mayor of Monongahela has jurisdiction as a committing magistrate to commit a defendant on a charge of surety of the peace, the offense not having been committed within the limits of Monongahela and not being in violation of any ordinance of that city. In passing upon this question the court states that if it were under the law as it is written in the charter of the city, there would be no doubt of the propriety of discharging the rule and refusing the motion for it is expressly provided in the charter that the mayor shall have jurisdiction in all criminal matters, whether arising in or out of the city that an alderman or justice of the peace has. However the act of 1913 curtails the power of the mayor so that he "shall have the criminal jurisdiction of an alderman within the city." The court, therefore held that he did not have jurisdiction in this case.

WILL TAKE THOUSANDS OF CARS FOR TROOPS

It will take all of the 1,500 tourist cars available and 5,000 coaches to transport the 194,500 men who constitute the 40 per cent of the citizen-soldiers selected for military service and who will travel from their homes to the 16 military cantonments of the government in the five-day period, beginning today.

Publication is prohibited of any routes or schedules of military movements, but it can be said the Government and the railroads have co-operated for the safe, comfortable and prompt transportation of the men who have been called this week.

Generally speaking the "tourist" sleeping cars will be used by those located farthest from the cantonments, while the day coaches will be utilized for the shorter trips. All arrangements are made for stops for meals enroute, wherever necessary.

Unlike the movement of regulars or national guardsmen the men will travel from their homes to the different cantonments without being accompanied by an officer. They will be in charge of one or two men selected by the draft boards and who will look after the various details enroute.

The movement of troops is likely to disarrange some passenger schedules during the next few days, but as nothing is too good for the soldier boys, the public will gladly put up with this inconvenience, knowing that the railroads are giving their best service for the accommodatio of the men.

SAY COLORED PUPILS ARE UNFAIRLY TREATED

Rev. William Tracy, colored, residing at Marianna, accompanied by two colored residents of the town, were in Washington on Monday to counsel with County Superintendent Crumrine relative to the actions of the school board of their borough in segregating the colored pupils of the schools and placing them all in charge of a separate teacher. This action on the part of the directors of Marianna, they claim, is illegal and they propose to have a full investigation in the matter made at once.

Mr. Crumrine advised that the aggrieved persons confer with the members of the school board and try to effect a fair and quitable adjustment of their differences without having to appeal to law. The colored complainants claim that the action of the school board is plainly and emphatically contrary to the provisions of the school code. They declare it is a plain case of discrimination, inasmuch by the segregation of the colored pupils of various grades and placing them under the charge of one teacher will make against their progress in school work

STR. LAUGHLIN AGAIN IN TRADE

The steamer Henry A. Laughlin, Capt. Henry Sidel or North Charleroi after being hauled out on the ways and thoroughly repaired and painted, has resumed her place in the J. & L. line, making its first appearance Tuesday afternoon in charge of a tow of empties bound for the upper pools. The Laughlin looked as spic and span as the proverbial new pin, and is now in excellent shape for the hard and strenuous work of the fall and winter.

GUARD MAY SOON BE SENT TO FRANCE

Reports emanating from Camp Hancock. Augusta. Ga., say that the prospects of a Pennsylvania Division of troops going to France at an early date are very flattering Army men realize that the Pennsylvania troops, which underwent such intensive training on the border last summer, are about the best prepared in the country to receive such an assignment and that they may be detailed at an early date for this duty.

Prior to departure, however, it is likely some changes will be announced in the make-up of the Division. it is said the First Pennsylvania Cavalry will be made over into an artillery regiment, while other Infantry regiments are likely to be broken up and their units transferred to other regiments, in order to conform to the French system, which has been adopted by the United States Army. Just when these changes will be announced is not stated, although they may come this week. The Division is expected to begin its intensive training this week and it is likely the changes will be put in effect at the earliest possible moment that the troops may have the benefit of the instruction under the new formation.

People in western Pennsylvania are naturally interested in the old Second Brigade, now designated as the Fifty-sixth Infantry Brigade, as to what disposition will be made of the regiments comprising this splendid organization.

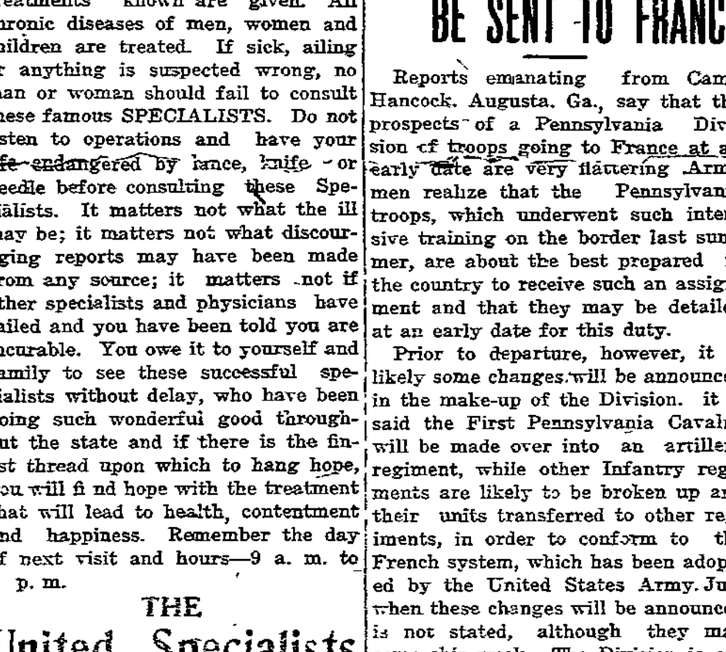
Strategic Position of Reval Makes it an Objective of Huns on Way to Petrograd



Perched high upon a hill overlooking the Gulf of Finland at the point where it merges with the Baltic Sea is the city of Reval, a thriving port of Russia. The German fleet has recently appeared off the gulf with the evident intent of attacking Reval. The objective is presumably to cut off the Russians who defended Riga, or it is possible that the Teuton navy would make this a base for operations against Petrograd. Possession of Reval would give the Germans a distinct strategic advantage. Through Reval it would be possible for the Germans to land a force to march on the Capital through Kronstadt. The picture shows the city from the Shore Road leading from the wharves.
